

ARTS

Grant awarded to ballet

Commonwealth Ballet, based in Acton and a vital part of the arts community, has received a Foundation for MetroWest grant from the Foundation's 2010 grant cycle. The $2,500 grant is designated to support the performances of "A Small Thing, Lost" at Regis College's Casey Theatre in Weston on March 12th and 13th.

The grant supports the dance concert featuring the CBC dancers, including a collaboration with Acton Boxborough Madrigal Singers, and three new works by Adechiké Torbert, Denise Pons, and Chip Morris. The grant supports this live collaboration of dancers, voices and music for the MetroWest audience. For more information visit www.commonwealthballet.org

