

Food pantry receives grant

NATICK — Foundation for MetroWest has given a $2,000 grant to the Hudson Food Pantry in Hudson. The grant was a portion of a $50,000 donation awarded to food pantries throughout MetroWest from the Foundation's English Family Fund.

"Food pantries throughout the MetroWest region are seeing an increase in demand from our friends and neighbors who are in need of food assistance," said Judith Salerno, executive director of Foundation for MetroWest. "The Foundation is happy that we are, in a small but impactful way, able to help these organizations stretch their resources a little further this winter season."

In 2010 the Foundation distributed $500K throughout the region and has distributed more than $6.5M since its inception in 1995. For more information please visit www.Foundation-forMetroWest.org.

Foundation for MetroWest connects philanthropic opportunity with demonstrated need in MetroWest. We promote philanthropy in the region, help donors maximize the impact of their local giving, serve as a resource for local nonprofit organizations, and enhance the quality of life for all of our citizens.
