FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chamber of Commerce Leaders Paul Joseph and Greg Reibman to be Honored by Foundation for MetroWest

October 4, 2017 (Natick, MA) — Foundation for MetroWest is pleased to announce that Paul Joseph, President & CEO of MetroWest Chamber of Commerce and Greg Reibman, President of Newton-Needham Regional Chamber, will each receive the 2017 Civic Leader Award for their work promoting a strong, vibrant business community in MetroWest at the Community Leadership Breakfast.

The Breakfast will be held on Friday, October 27, 2017 from 7:30 AM – 9:30 AM at the Boston Marriott Newton at 2345 Commonwealth Avenue in Newton, Massachusetts. Tickets are now available and can be purchased at foundationformetrowest.org/CLB or by calling 508-647-2260.

This year the Foundation honors Joseph's and Reibman's work connecting businesses with each other and with the local community. Their years of experience as civic leaders exemplify their commitment to the MetroWest community and its potential for growth and innovation.

Attendees will also hear from keynote speaker Ann R. Klee, Vice President of GE's Global Environment, Health & Safety Group, and Boston Development and Operations. Klee also serves as President of the GE Foundation.

The Community Leadership Breakfast provides an opportunity to engage 350 corporate decision makers and civic leaders in conversation and highlights the Foundation's work to make MetroWest a stronger, more sustainable community. The event is designed to explore how companies incorporate corporate and community philanthropy into their business models.
