

2009 Annual Report

FOUNDATION FOR METROWEST

2009 was a year of change for the Foundation. In November, after much reflection and a strategic planning process, Crossroads Community Foundation officially changed its name to the Foundation for MetroWest. We believe that our new name effectively communicates our mission—that is providing services and support to our neighbors in MetroWest.

For the past fifteen years, the Foundation has been a part of the local philanthropic community. Over the past year, we have looked at our mission and strategy, and, in September of 2009, the Foundation's Board of Trustees approved a new strategic plan for the organization which will allow us to better meet the needs of MetroWest, today and in the future.

Our change from Crossroads to the Foundation for MetroWest was the first step. As we move forward under our new name, we are optimistic about our future as a philanthropic resource for the region. In an area of many riches, we are committed to preserving the quality and character of our community. This generation's legacy will be one of thoughtful planning and protection of our heritage, culture, open space, and our citizens.

We are grateful for your past investment and support, and look forward to working together in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Vacovec

Chair, Board of Trustees

Our Year in Review

- January The Foundation begins its series of half-day seminars for members of non-profit boards. Throughout the year, we hold 5 seminars on topics such as fundraising, board recruitment, and how to better engage members.
- February The Foundation convenes local funders to discuss our work and ways to collaborate.
- March Members of the Youth Action Council begin visiting sites of grant applicants. This comes after five months of classes where they learned about philanthropy and how to make giving decisions.
- April The Board of Trustees hires a consultant to begin researching the Foundation's brand. More than 50 community members, peers, and supporters are interviewed to get a better picture of how people see us.
- May At the Foundation's Annual Meeting, members of the Youth Action Council distribute checks to their four grantees, and four local philanthropists are honored with the Woolsey S. Conover Award for Community Involvement. Later in May, the Foundation hosted an event where attorney Natalie Choate spoke to nearly 100 lawyers, financial planners and accountants about charitable giving and retirement benefits.
- June The Board of Trustees votes to officially change our name to the Foundation for MetroWest. Foundation staff begin working on the re-branding project.
- July On July 1st, the Distribution Committee releases its 2009 Request for Proposals. This year the Foundation is offering grants in three areas – Family Support, Environment, and Arts & Culture.
- August Our grant application deadline, there is a 25% increase in applications from local nonprofits. After reading through applications, members of the Distribution Committee begin their site visits.
- September The Board of Trustees approves the Foundation's strategic plan, and we come closer to formally changing our name.
- October Our Professional Advisor Committee hosts an event with Jonathan Pond about how to survive the recession and thrive when the economy rebounds. The Foundation sponsors a convening to introduce the COMPASS Community College Collaborative program to potential partners and to discuss how together they can work to end family homelessness in MetroWest.
- November Crossroads Community Foundation officially changes our name to the Foundation for MetroWest. We launch our new name at the beginning of Community Foundations Week. In addition, the Foundation sponsors "Marketing on a Shoestring," a seminar to help local nonprofits figure out the best way to market their organization to the community.
- December The Foundation announces our 2009-10 Discretionary Grantees at a ceremony at the DeCordova Museum in Lincoln. We award $160,000 to 22 different organizations.

Our Mission

The Foundation for MetroWest connects philanthropic opportunity with demonstrated need in Metrowest.

We promote philanthropy in the region, help donors maximize the impact of their local giving,
serve as a resource for local nonprofit organizations and enhance the quality of life for all of our citizens.
