FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Paul Griffin Joins Foundation for MetroWest Board of Trustees

June 18th, 2015: Paul Griffin, a 15-year Sudbury resident, has joined the Board of Trustees of Foundation for MetroWest (FFMW).

Griffin brings to the Foundation nearly 20 years of experience as a Technology Investment Banker. In 2015, Griffin joined KeyBanc Capital Markets (NYSE: KEY) to establish and lead a technology-focused Private Equity coverage group. Prior to KeyBanc, Griffin was Managing Director and Head of Software Investment & Corporate Banking at BMO Capital Markets (NYSE/TSX: BMO). Griffin is active with numerous charities and civic organizations, including: Boston Children's Museum (past member, Board of Overseers), International House of New York, St. George's Society of New York, and United Way of Massachusetts Bay and Merrimack Valley.

"The wealth of knowledge and business experience that Paul brings to the Board of Trustees is sure to play a critical role in growing our impact in the MetroWest community," said Judith Salerno, executive director of the Foundation for MetroWest. "We are looking forward to working with him, learning from him, and leveraging his passion and perspective."

Griffin lives in Sudbury with his wife, Trish and their sons, Robert and Henry.

"I am honored to join the Board and I look forward to supporting the important work of the Foundation," said Griffin. "The Foundation's financial contributions make a significant positive impact in our MetroWest communities. As importantly, through its unique youth programs, the Foundation is investing in the philanthropic leaders of the future."

Established in 1995, the Foundation for MetroWest is the only community foundation serving the 33 cities and towns in the region; connecting the philanthropic interests of donors with demonstrated need in the areas of Family Support, Arts & Culture, Environment and Youth Development. Through a combination of donor advised funds and unrestricted dollars, the Foundation has granted over $9 million to charitable organizations and currently stewards more than $15 million in charitable assets for current needs and future impact.
